Congressional Meetings – Advocacy Associates

This year we are partnering with Advocacy Associates, a logistics firm that specializes in organizing the entirety of Hill Days in Washington, DC. In 2023, they've completed 235 of these events and secured 30,000+ meetings for 30,000+ advocates. They will be assisting with the logistics of our Advocacy Day including all scheduling of Congressional meetings.

We are working with Advocacy Associates to control NFDA's image on the Hill. Plus, it's critical that we present a united front to members of Congress. Therefore, registering and attending the 2024 Advocacy Summit means you agree to the new standards and terms outlined by Advocacy Associates.

- The process of how your meetings will be arranged is as follows:
 - Your home address will be used to match you with the appropriate Representative and Senators
 - You will then be grouped with other attendees according to district, state, then region if necessary. Your state will have an identified representative, who will be your point of contact.
 - You will meet with the offices of Representatives and Senators where your home is located, and any relevant members of Congress that fall under the committees most pertinent to our legislative issues
 - An email with your schedule will be sent roughly 1 week in advance allowing you to download their app. This will provide you with:
 - Office name and bio
 - Time
 - Location
 - Who you are meeting with
 - Other attendees who will be in the meeting with you
 - Talking points and documents
 - Contact information for scheduling support

All congressional meetings will be scheduled for Thursday, March 21 between 9:30am and 4:30 pm (Congress is in session all day). Additional Wednesday meetings are available pending a request from the state representative.
